The Online Independent's Getting-Started Checklist

Best place to sell: Your own website, Etsy & social media

- [ ] 1 Choose where to start: your own site, Etsy or another marketplace, or online wholesale
- [ ] 2 Plan where your visitors will come from: even on a marketplace, bringing buyers is your job
- [ ] 3 Photograph your ten best pieces in natural light
- [ ] 4 Write descriptions that tell the story behind each piece, with sizes and materials
- [ ] 5 Know your floor and your profit price, including fees, packaging and shipping
- [ ] 6 Write your shop policies: shipping times, returns and custom requests
- [ ] 7 Pick one social media platform and post three times a week, including "this piece is available" posts
- [ ] 8 Start an email list and put the sign-up link on your shop and profile
- [ ] 9 Find one person or business whose audience is your buyer, and plan a collaboration
- [ ] 10 Hand off what drains you: a website template, a bookkeeper or help with setup
- [ ] 11 Check your business licence and sales tax registration, and add a copyright line to invoices
- [ ] 12 Check your shop stats once a month, and add new work regularly
