Best place to sell: Wholesale, gift shops & boutiques

- [ ] 1 Choose 4–8 products you can make the same way every time
- [ ] 2 Time yourself making a full batch, and cost every material
- [ ] 3 Set retail prices where half (the wholesale price) still covers costs, time and profit
- [ ] 4 Decide your minimum order and how shops reorder
- [ ] 5 Test your packaging so products arrive safely and look good on a shelf
- [ ] 6 Photograph every product on a plain background
- [ ] 7 Make a simple line sheet: photos, product codes, wholesale and suggested retail prices
- [ ] 8 List ten local shops whose style matches yours
- [ ] 9 Approach three of them, with samples if you can
- [ ] 10 Work out how much you can make each month before you say yes to orders
- [ ] 11 Consider consignment for your first shop, with a written agreement
